

<IMPORTANT: Financial support for young researchers by UNESCO>

22nd December, 2022

UNESCO and ICHARM are currently finalizing a contract to provide financial support to those who will make a presentation at ICFM9.

The financial support program prioritizes young researchers from developing countries.

The financial support program covers hotel stays, living expenses, and conference registration fees during the stay in Japan.

Note the following:

- The financial support program does NOT apply to airline tickets.
- The hotel and living expenses will be provided according to the rules of the Public Works Research Institute.

Those wishing to apply for the financial support program must contact the ICFM9 Secretariat (icfm9@icharm.org) with the following items by no later than January 6.

- Name
- Organization
- Occupation
- Nationality
- Age
- Paper title

Due to the budget limitation, ICFM9 secretariat will discuss to whom to finance and inform the selected candidates respectively.
